

2023 EUROPEAN ULTRA 4 CHAMPIONS

GIGGLEPIN RACING TAKE THE TITLE

Gigglespin Racing are the 2023 European Ultra 4 Champions!

Ultra 4 is the Formula 1 of Off Road racing. Its high adrenaline fast paced action packed format makes it a firm favourite with racers and crowds around the world. The European Championship is always hard fought and this year was no different with teams from across Europe battling to take the crown. Step forward Jim Marsden and the Gigglespin racing crew. Winners of this title in 2019 and runners up in 2022. They were looking to go one better and regain their title in 2023.

Racing over three rounds in Poland, Great Britain and Portugal fighting the terrain, distance, the weather and high class opposition it was never going to be easy.

But the Gigglespin race team are exceptional, with crew from UK, Malta, Portugal and Italy they are experts at overcoming the odds.

The championship came down to fierce final battle that was decided under sunny skies at King of Portugal.

With Jim and Co-driver Alex Wilson keeping Belgium power house that it is the Ruel sport team just behind them in points to secure their second European title in 4 years.

This season was about perseverance, teamwork and dedication. The hundreds of hours in the workshop and the late nights in the pits.

But none of it is possible without the incredible Team, our Partners and our Sponsors. So thank you one and all!

Now it's time to rebuild the race cars and get ready for the 2024 season racing as the defending Ultra 4 European Champions.
